

Concept Formation

	Document A	Document B	Document C
Summarize the document. What is it?
What are the problems identified in the document?
How does the document propose to solve the problems?
How is the document similar to the other document?

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Concept Formation Notes

Directions: Please fill out the worksheet below after reading the documents and completing your chart. Work on each section as instructed. Do not go ahead of the teacher.

Please list at least three differences between the examples you just read.

1.

2.

3.

Please list at least three similarities between the examples you just read.

1.

2.

3.

Critical Attributes:

1.

2.

3.

Definition: All of the examples you read are examples of a concept. How would you define this concept? Write a definition in one sentence below and be sure to include your critical attributes.

Concept:

Concept Conclusion

Write at least 2 paragraphs on the following prompt. Be sure to reflect upon and include examples from each document to support your conclusion.

What is the goal of the 3 documents? How are their approaches similar? How are their approaches different? What is this strategy called? Do you think this is an effective strategy to fight communism? Explain.

